SHORT NOTE ABOUT THE MUSEUM

Museum - Teodora and Izydor Gulgowski Kashubian Ethnographic Park was set up in Wdzydze in 1906. Located by the Gołuń Lake, it covers the area of 22 hectares. The Museum exhibits over 50 buildings typical for the rural landscape of Kashubia, Kociewie and Tuchola Forest in the period of 17th - 20th century. Visitors can see the examples of old architecture of Pomerania region: peasant's houses, manor houses, a school, windmills, churches, inns, farm buildings and workshops. The ethnographic park is also a place for rite shows, field events, fairs and handicraft workshops.
